

Offer Terms and Conditions

Offer Period

From 12:01 GMT on 19/02/2018 until 17:59 GMT on 28/02/2018 (the "Promotional Period") on www.edreams.co.uk eDreams partnered with Rental Cars to provide you with car rental bookings on the Website. The discount will be subjected to these Terms and Conditions and the Terms and Conditions of Rental Cars.

The offer is valid for selected pickups locations where the minimum pickup is up to 2 days in advance and less than 2 days rental duration.

Price

A discount of up to 50% off is available to the standard online rates available on the Website for reservation on selected airport pickups and downtown locations from certain suppliers.

Please note: we work with multiple suppliers in each location and often cars within the same category will vary in price. Some suppliers may not provide discounts and therefore none will be shown on those particular rentals. The cheapest rate before the sale may not be the discounted rate on the day of the sale.

Any quotes will only be valid on the date the quotation is made and cannot be honoured after that time.

The offer is subject to availability. Prices change quickly based on demand and availability and during the offer period it is likely that the cheapest cars will book up first.

Cancellations, Changes and Excluded Items

The discount offer will only apply to the car rental price displayed on the Website.

This offer applies to all new reservations made for the specified sale destination and cannot be applied to existing reservations or applied retrospectively. Reservations made prior to the offer period, cancelled and rebooked during the offer period will not be eligible for discount.

The discount will not apply to any pre-bookable extras such as insurance excess & security deposit protection Insurance and GPS products, or any other options or additional fees.

Discount cannot be combined with any other offer, promotions, discounts or similar.

During the Offer Period, there is no maximum number of reservations which can be made. The sale is subject to availability.

Once a confirmed reservation has been made, it will be possible to make minor changes to your reservations such as adding the names of new drivers or adding pre-bookable extras. Any major changes such as changing the time, date and location of the pick-up and drop off or changing the car group reserved, for example, will be possible but may result in the discount being removed and you will also be responsible for any additional charges which may apply as a result of these changes.

If you wish to cancel your car hire reservation at any time, the normal cancellation policy and charges will apply.

All reservations which require confirmation within 48 hours will still be eligible for the discount provided that the original reservation is confirmed with the supplier. If we are unable to confirm your original reservation within 48 hours you may still be eligible for the discount providing you re-book your car hire within 48 hours. Car rental bookings are in conjunction with our partner Rentalcars of being notified that your original reservation cannot be confirmed.
